

Stop the insanity of big money controlling everything including the airwaves. The job of the FCC is to put the interests of the people before corporate greed. Please examine your heart and conscious instead of your pocketbook. This is not something that would be in the best interests of the people of America.

Thank you.

Kathleen Penley